PORTABLE WRITING CASE, designed for during man, the most convenient, pleasant and cheap for sale by all D. W. HOWARD

American & Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also, in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into Anticipations of Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is more successful at the Patent Office than the subscriber; and as success is the best proof of ability, he would add that he has a honest reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The business of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most regular and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of pushing their applications to a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for the Patent Office applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such uniform success is proof of great talent and ability on his part beside one to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

JOHN TAFLIARY.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications—SIXTEEN APPEALS—EVERY ONE OF WHICH was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

ILLUSTRATED
SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN;
—THE—
Best Mechanical Paper in the World.
SEVENTEENTH YEAR.
VOLUME VI—NEW SERIES.

A NEW VOLUME of this widely circulated paper commences on the first of January. It is published weekly, and every number contains sixteen pages of useful information, and from five to ten original engravings of new inventions and discoveries; all of which are prepared expressly for its columns.

To the Mechanic and Manufacturer.

No person engaged in any of the mechanical or manufacturing pursuits should think of "doing without" the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN. Hoods but four cents per week; every number contains from six to ten engravings of new machines and inventions, which cannot be found in any other publication. It is an established rule of the publishers to insert none but original engravings, and those of the first class in the art, drawn and engraved by experienced persons under their own supervision.

To the Inventor.

The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN is indispensable to every inventor, as it not only contains illustrated descriptions of nearly all the best inventions as they come out, but each number contains an Official List of the claims of all the Patents issued from the United States Patent Office during the week previous; thus giving a correct history of the progress of invention in this country. We are now receiving every week, the best scientific journals of Great Britain, France, and Germany; thus placing in our possession all that is transpiring in mechanical science and art in these old countries. We shall continue to transfer to our columns copious extracts from these journals of whatever we may deem of interest to our readers.

Chemists, Architects, Millwrights and Farmers.

The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN will be found a most useful journal to them. All the new discoveries in the science of chemistry are given in its columns, and the interests of the architect and carpenter are not overlooked; all the new inventions and discoveries appertaining to these pursuits being published from week to week. Useful and practical information pertaining to the interests of millwrights and millowners will be found published in the Scientific American, which information they cannot possibly obtain from any other source. Subjects in which planters and farmers are interested will be found discussed in the Scientific American; most of the improvements in agricultural implements being illustrated in its columns.

TERMS.

To mail subscribers, Two Dollars a year, or One Dollar for six months. One Dollar pay for one complete volume of 416 pages; two volumes form the one year. The volumes commence on the first of January and July. Specimen copies will be sent gratis to any part of the country. Also, a pamphlet of instructions to inventors about obtaining patents sent free.

Western and Canadian money or Post-office stamps taken at par for subscription. Canadian subscribers will please to remit twenty-five cents extra on each year's subscription to prepay postage.

In Peace or War on land or sea,
Our flag, the sign of the free,
Bright emblem of Columbia's glory!
Shall tell to coming years the story,
How, stout of heart, and strong of hand,
The patriots of our native land
Bore it, the nation's hope and life,
On tented field, 'mid fearful strife,
Still on! 'till through the sulphurous cloud
It broke in triumph, Treason's shroud!

THE IMPENDING GRAND MOVEMENT AGAINST THE REBELS. The New York World, (supposed to be as good authority in regard to the intentions of government as any newspaper can be) still insists upon it that notwithstanding the apparent delays, we are on the eve of great decisive opinions. It says there is to be no hibernating, no yielding to the sclemency of the winter, but this season will in all probability witness the decisive blows against the rebellion. The movement, when undertaken, will undoubtly embrace every command between the Atlantic and the Mississippi, and will sweep forward with such combinations of power that, even though it may experience a check here and there, the general effect must be overwhelming. In all probability, too, simultaneous movements will be made from the southern coasts against the most important cities. There are not troops enough in the "confederacy" to withstand any such inroad upon all sides. Hitherto the government has realized but very little advantage from its larger resources in men. Hardly an engagement has occurred in which the rebels have not outnumbered the force opposed to them. They have almost uniformly managed to avoid battle unless this superiority was first assured, and they owe their few successes thus far to their skill in carrying out that policy. But with a combined federal movement this system of operation will no longer serve them. Stratagem will be powerless. It will then be a question merely of the preponderance of effective soldiery, and material of war, as directed upon the broadest scale. The rebel leaders themselves, without knowing anything of the particular features of General McClellan's plans, yet anticipate truly enough their general principle. The frantic efforts of Governor Harris to make a general levy of all able-bodied citizens in spite of the opposition of the people, and the passionate adjuration of Ex Governor Price, of Missouri, for fifty thousand more troops, show very distinctly their appreciation of the nature of the impending blows.

☞ The statement copied recently from the N Y Times, in regard to the escape of prisoners from the Charleston jail, during the great fire is now doubted by that paper. It says the Union prisoners, according to previous reports, were confined in the new prison, which was not within the district destroyed by the fire, and it certainly does not seem likely that three or four hundred of them would be left in an open room, from which they could so easily make their escape as they were represented to have done in this narrative. We have hitherto understood, also, that it was not the wounded among our prisoners who were removed to Charleston, but those who were best able to bear the removal. There are other features of the case which incline to the belief that Hurd was indulging in some flights of fancy in the report which he made of his adventures in Charleston, and that he has really been no further South than Richmond.

Charleston is in ashes, but, being cut off from the hemp growing regions, she can't have any sackcloth with her ashes, says Prentice.

Notwithstanding the drain to supply the expeditions, it is said there are yet over two hundred and fifty thousand men on the Potomac.

Ship Torquin, which arrived at Boston 25th from Calcutta, brings as part of cargo, 3853 bags saltpetre and 4020 bags rice.

Englishmen in this country apprehend serious effects upon the Queen from her husband's death. Her hereditary tendency to insanity is marked.

M. Alexander, a French manufacturer of gloves sends yearly to America about 60,000 dozen pairs of gloves, valued at from 2,500,000 to 3,000,000 francs. He manufactures only for export.

GEN. SCOTT. The New York papers agree in pronouncing his agreeable, and we trust, significant fact, that Gen Scott looks more cheerful and hale everyone than when he left the country a few weeks ago.

Pleasant Installation and Celebration. Upon the occasion of the 27th of December, the Anniversary of the festival of St. John the Evangelist, the officers of St. Andrews Lodge, No. 83, F & A. M., in this city, were installed in ample form by Most Worshipful J H Drummond, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Maine, assisted by Worshipful David Bugbee, Acting Grand Marshal.

About two hundred brethren assembled at the Hall, when the Master, Gideon Marston, retired from the Chair with some appropriate remarks, after which the Grand Master proceeded to install the following officers—

John H Lynde, Master.
Russell H Shepherd, S W
Geo. W Manton, J W
Daniel Morrs, Treasurer
Joseph W Freese, Secretary
Benj H Morrill, S D
Zebulon Grover, J D
R G Rollins, M S
Manley G Trask, J S
Simeon Everton, Tyler
Hermon Bartlett, Marshal

The installation services concluded, the brethren formed in procession and marched to the Penobscot Exchange, where Mr Woodard, under the direction of the members of St. Andrews Lodge, had provided a most bountiful and excellent supper.

After the guests were seated, they were welcomed by the Master of St. Andrews Lodge, and the Throne of Grace was addressed by Worshipful W M William Grand Chaplain, after which ample justice was done to the supper.

The scene at the table was impressive and beautiful. One hundred and fifty one guests were seated, and the tables were admirably laid and brilliantly lighted, doing great credit to the internal arrangements of the Exchange. At the head of the table on the right was M W Grand Master Drummond; Rt Wor J J Bell, Senior Grand Warden, Worshipful Rev W M William, Grand Chaplain, Worshipful David Bugbee, Junior Grand Deacon, Worshipful J A Hall, of Damariscotta, Grand Sword Bearer. Upon the left was M W Past Grand Master Hiram Chase of Belfast. Next to him were several of the oldest Masons of the country, who have borne the heat and burden of the day in years gone by, and who stood by Masonic principles during the "Dark Ages" of Morganism, when Masonry was persecuted and oppressed. Among them were Captain Israel Snow, over ninety years of age, who has been a member of the Fraternity more than sixty years; Captain John Short, a member of forty six years standing, Col Henry Little who has acted upon the square for over fifty years, Col Benj S Deage, forty six years a brother, Mr D Monson who has been a Mason for forty three years, Past Grand High Priest John Williams, and many others who have been for a very long time members of the Fraternity.

After discussing the viands, Geo W Manton, Junior Warden of St Andrews Lodge read the regular toasts as follows

St John the Evangelist—The Disciple whom Jesus loved. An eminent patron of Masonry. We revere his memory. Let us emulate his virtues.

Responded to by Rev W M William of this city, who discussed Masonry and its connection with religious principles.

St Andrew—Our Patron Saint. A brilliant star in the Grand Lodge above.

The following Masonic Ode was spiritedly sung in response, under the direction of Past Master Jonathan Burbank

All hail! the great mysterious Art,
Grand offering from above—
Which kindly twines each genial heart
In harmony and love

Come brothers join the festive board,
Awake the tuneful lay,
Unite in Friendship, Peace and Love
'Tis Masons' holiday

Come, bring the wreath the true blue—
Faith Charity, and Love,
Our patron Saints, splendid star
In the Grand Lodge above.

With fervent zeal and pure delight,
We'll wake the joyful strain,
Till in the great Grand Lodge we meet,
Where joys immortal reign

The Army—With the venerable Scott for counsel—the gallant McClellan and his valiant soldiers for action, our army is invincible at home or abroad.

Col. Wm H Mills of this city, prominently known in military circles patriotically responded to

The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine

This sentiment was responded to by Most Worshipful Grand Master Drummond, in his usual genial and happy manner. Among other things he alluded to the duties of a Mason to his country. Every good and true Mason must be a patriot. His duty to his country was only second to his obligations to Deity, and the brother who forgot or neglected them was no longer a pure Mason. He also alluded to the fact that brothers who are prisoners in the Southern States, were looked after and cared for, and their wants attended to by Southern members of the Fraternity, and he thanked God that this little spark of brotherly love still existed, and trusted that it might extend until it should leaven the whole lump. We give no report of his remarks, but allude to the points above as important and significant.

Ancient Landmarks—The guide of every true Mason. Their reverence and respect is our duty as well as our pleasure.

This sentiment was eloquently responded to by M W Hiram Chase, of Belfast, Past Grand Master. He alluded to the importance of the ancient land-marks of the order. They were near and dear to the heart of every member of the Fraternity—their lights, their guides, their boundaries, immovable as the hills, they never can be changed, and they never must be deviated from. His remarks were received with profound attention.

The following letter from Hon Jacob McGaw who has been a member of the Fraternity for more than sixty years, was read also as another appropriate response to the sentiment, by R B Shepherd, S. W of St. Andrews.

To the W Master, Wardens and Brethren of St. Andrews Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons:

I thank you for your fraternal invitation to visit you on the anniversary of the festival of St. John the Evangelist, which I shall be happy to do if I am able. But I am now in the 86th year of my age, and I find I am not as active as I was sixty years ago, when I first visited your Lodge, and I am not certain that I shall be able to do so. I am however, with you in spirit, and will be with you if I can be. I am now the only surviving member of the Lodge that I find on the roll when I first visited it, and I am the only one living who was then a member of any Lodge in this place. I am the only one living who was then a member of the Chapter in this place. I am the only one living who was then a member of the Council in this place. I am the only one living who was then a member of the Commandery in this place. I am the only one living who was then a member of the Grand Lodge of Maine. I am the only one living who was then a member of the Grand Chapter of Maine. I am the only one living who was then a member of the Grand Council of Maine. I am the only one living who was then a member of the Grand Commandery of Maine. I am the only one living who was then a member of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts. I am the only one living who was then a member of the Grand Chapter of Massachusetts. I am the only one living who was then a member of the Grand Council of Massachusetts. I am the only one living who was then a member of the Grand Commandery of Massachusetts. I am the only one living who was then a member of the Grand Lodge of New York. I am the only one living who was then a member of the Grand Chapter of New York. I am the only one living who was then a member of the Grand Council of New York. [Dispatches to the Evening Papers.]

NEW YORK, 28th.

The official correspondence between our Government and Great Britain relative to the seizure of the Confederate Commissioners Slidell and Mason is received

The first is a letter from Secretary Seward to Mr Minister Adams dated Nov 30, in which he compliments the latter for so wisely speaking and acting at the Lord Mayor's dinner, and also says that he told Lord Palmerston the simple fact, when informing him that the life of the insurrection is sustained by the hopes of a recognition of the Southern Confederacy by England and France and if those hopes ceased, the insurrection would perish in ninety days.

He refers in the same note to the fact of the arrest of Mason and Slidell by Capt. Wilkes, as a new and unforeseen circumstance, which is to be met by the two Governments, if possible, in a friendly spirit Lord Lyons had said nothing on the subject, and no explanations were furnished by Minister Adams, it being deemed prudent that the ground taken by the British Government should be first made known here, and the discussion to be had here, but Mr Seward deemed it proper to state that Capt. Wilkes acted without instructions, and the subject, therefore, is free from embarrassment that might have ensued if the act had been specially directed — He trusts that the British Government will consider the subject in a friendly temper, and it may expect the best disposition on our part

The next letter is from Earl Russell to Lord Lyons, dated Nov 30, which details the Trent affair

He says it thus appears that certain individuals have been forcibly taken from a British vessel the ship of a neutral power, on a lawful and innocent voyage, an act of violence which was an affront to the British flag and a violation of national law

Her Majesty's Government is willing to believe the act was without authority, and resulted from misunderstanding, as the Government of the United States must be fully aware that the British Government will not allow such an affront to its national honor to pass without due reparation, and the British Government is unwilling to believe that the United States deliberately intended, unnecessarily, to force a discussion of so grave a question between the two Governments

Her Majesty's Government trusts that the Government of the United States will of its own accord offer such redress as alone could satisfy them, namely—

The liberation of the four persons and their delivery to Lord Lyons, that they may be placed under British protection, and a suitable apology for the aggression committed Should these terms not be offered by Mr Seward, you will propose them to him

Mr Seward replies to Lord Lyons, by whom he was furnished a copy of Earl Russel s letter, stating that the dispatch has been submitted to the President

Mr Seward states that the British Government rightly conjectured what it is now my duty to state, hat Capt Wilkes acted upon his own suggestions of duty, without any directions or instructions or even foreknowledge of it on the part of this Government

No directions had been given him or any other naval officer, to arrest the four persons or any of them, on the Trent or any other British vessel or any neutral vessel, there or elsewhere

After giving the whole question at great length in all its bearings, Mr Seward says

I think I have shown to the satisfaction of the British government, by a very simple and rational statement of facts, and analysis of law applicable to them, that this government neither meditate, nor practiced or approved, any deliberate wrong in the transaction to which they have called its attention, and on the contrary, that which has happened has been simply an inadvertency, consisting in a departure by the naval officer, free from any wrong motive, from a rule uncertainly established, and probably by the several parties concerned, either imperfectly understood or entirely unknown

For this error the British government has a right to expect the same reparation that we, as an independent state, should expect from Great Britain, or from any friendly nation, in a similar case

I have not been unaware that in examining this question, I have fallen into an argument for what seems to be the British side of it, against my own country, but I am relieved from all embarrassment on that subject I had hardly fallen into that line of argument when I discovered that I was really defending and maintaining not an exclusively British interest, but an old honored and cherished American cause, not upon British authorities, but upon principles that constitute a large portion of the domestic policy by which the United States have dispelled the resources of a continent, and thus become a considerable maritime power, have won the respect and confidence of many nations

Peace principles were laid down for us by James Madison in 1804, when Secretary of State under Jefferson in instructions to James Monroe our then Minister to England

Mr Seward says, after quoting these instructions "If I decide this case in favor of my own government, I must disclow its most cherished principles and reverse and forever abandon its essential policy The country cannot afford the sacrifice If I maintain these principles and adhere to that policy, I must surrender the case itself It will be seen, therefore, that this Government could not deny the justice of the claim pretended We are asked to do the British nation just what we have always insisted all other nations ought to do to us

In coming to my conclusions, I have not forgotten that if the safety of the Union required the detention of the captured prisoners, it would be the right and duty of this government to detain them

But the effectual check and warning proper to be given of the existing insurrection, as well as the comparative unimportance of the captured persons themselves, when dispassionately weighed, happily forbid me from resorting to that defence

Nor am I unaware that American citizens are not in any case to be unnecessarily surrendered for any purpose into the hands of a foreign state only the captured persons, however, or other persons who are interested in them, could justly raise a question on that ground

It would tell little for our own claims to the character of a just and magnanimous people, if we should so far consent to be guided by the law of retaliation as to lift up buried injuries against national consistency and national conscience

Putting behind me all suggestions of this kind, I prefer to express my satisfaction that by the adjustment of the present case upon principles confessedly American and yet, as I trust mutually satisfactory to both nations concerned a question is finally and rightly settled between them, which heretofore, exhausting not only all forms of peaceful discussion, but also the arbitrament of war itself, for more than half a century alienated the two countries from each other and perplexed with fear and apprehension other nations

A dispatch from M Thouvenal to Mr Mercier French Minister to our government is also contained The correspondence of M Thouvenal urges that a neutral flag from a neutral to another neutral port, covers the persons and merchandize it carries, and adopts the principles laid down in the dispatch of Earl Russell.

The four persons in question are now held in military custody at Fort Warren, in the State of Massachusetts They will be cheerfully liberated Your lordship will please indicate a time and place for receiving them

I renew my assurance of my very high consideration (Signed,) W H. SEWARD

WASHINGTON, 28th

The decision of the President in the Trent affair, as announced in the despatch of Secretary Seward has the approval of every member of the Cabinet

The Intelligencer, in an article apparently semi official, says "Whatever may be the disappointment of any at the result to which the Administration has come in settling a question constitutionally devolved upon the Executive branch of the Government, we are sure all will applaud the firmness and sincerity in which he Administration, resisting a natural tendency impressed by the concerted drift of public opinion in our own country, has resolved to do what it believes to be right in the premises

It surely should give pause to all who may be disposed to challenge the propriety of the resolution to which the Administration has come, when they note that a contrary decision could leave us in opposition, not only to the views of Great Britain, but also to those of the government of France, respecting the principles of public law involved in the transaction"

The Intelligencer says in conclusion —Whatever, therefore may be said by any in the way of exception in the extreme terms of the demand made by the British in the case of the Trent it is at least just to admit that the case has been so adjusted, by our government as to subserve, we hope, the great cause of neutral rights against the assumptions heretofore asserted by England but now repudiated by the power in company with France and he United States

The law of nations, as traditionally interpreted by our Government, has received a new sanction, though at the cost, it may be, of some national sensibilities waked into disproportionate activity by the temporary exacerbations of our civil feud, the latter let us remember, are but for a day, the law of nations is for all time

Minister Webb at Brazil represents that the sympathy of that country is strongly in favor of the Federal Government.

Both Lord Lyons and Secretary Seward received despatches by the Arago.

The Auditor of Massachusetts has presented a bill of $3,200,000 for expenses of sending troops, of which $1,300 000 will be paid now

The Times despatch states that Lieutenant Hurd of the 2d Maine regiment, who reported the escape of himself and Col Corcoran from Charleston, is believed to be a big humbug

Congressman Ely brings a list of 2700 prisoners He states there is no doubt of an extended and deep Union feeling at Richmond, and if the national army were within ten miles of Richmond, our old flag would be hung out from hundreds of windows there, but at present there is a perfect reign of terror

FORTRESS MONROE, 27

Gen Burnside is expected to arrive here tomorrow, to consult with Gen. Wool and Com Goldsborough, in relation to his contemplated movements

Considerable excitement prevails at Yorktown in anticipation of an attack.

The publication of the Norfolk Day Book was suspended yesterday for want of a supply of paper A copy of to-day's issue was brought down by the flag of truce, from which we extract the following dispatch, dated Augusta, Ga, 26th

A freight car collided about one mile from this city this afternoon Three passengers had their legs broken, and several horses were killed.

The Norfolk Day Book says that Winans's steamer came into the roads on Wednesday, and was still there yesterday The Keystone State was perhaps mistaken for the Winans

A dispatch dated Nashville, 24th, says that Tom Crittenden, with 12 000 men, was within forty miles of Hopkinsville and would advance upon that place at three points

A force of not less than sixty thousand men, the advance of Gen Buell s army, has crossed Green river, and are within five miles of General Hindman's advance. Great preparations have been made for the defence of Bowling Green, and a terrible conflict is impending.

DEATHS OF MAINE SOLDIERS. The Saco Democrat publishes an extract from Wm S Noyes, now a prisoner at Richmond, to his father in Saco, giving a list of men who have died there up to Dec 4th, as follows

THE DUBLIN MEETING The London Times represents the anti war meeting in Dublin as densely crowded and enthusiastic O'Donoghue M P, presided. In the course of his remarks he said

"It seems to me fellow countrymen, that a crisis in the history of the world is approaching and that we are about to witness, perhaps participate in (loud cheers) events which shall determine the fate of nations, and serve as landmarks to future ages It is then our duty at such a crisis, since England is resolved to go to war with the Northern States of America—if she can—it is clearly our duty to decide what course we shall take (Cheers) This is our duty, provided we do not feel bound to do as England pleases (shouts of 'Never!') irrespective of our own interests, sympathies and national principles. If, however we do not feel entitled to take an independent course—if we are bound to do as England pleases, (cries of 'no, no!') well, I say, if we do—suppose we do feel bound, in that case we have no business here, for the intentions of England are as plain as the sun at noon day

England is aware of the unfortunate state of things in America, and imagines that she would have no great difficulty in crushing the northern States This may not be so easily done (Shouts of 'Brave' waving of hats and tremendous cheering) Never believe, England is impressed with the notion of her superior strength No, no, I am perfectly certain that the people, if, as it is sometimes said Ireland is really nothing more than a part of England ('No, no') —if, as it is sometimes said, that Irishmen are in fact Englishmen in every respect (cries of 'Never!') except the accident of birth, then I suppose we will in that case follow the example of London Liverpool, Manchester and Birmingham, and cry. War, war! Down with the stripes and stars (Shouts of 'Never!' and loud cheers for The Yankees")

Then I suppose I am right in supposing that this is not an indignation meeting (cheers); that we are not met here like abject sycophants to echo the sound of English wrath, and that we are met here as Irishmen to consult for the safety of Ireland (Yells and groans) Now, I am perfectly certain that the great majority of Irishmen will object to contribute either men or money for the purpose of enabling England to make war with the Northern States (Enthusiastic cheering)

BY ONE OF THE SIXTY-NINTH. "Ye see, England is just like them witches as used to gallivant about these parts—she's very much bothered by a Cotton Mather!"—Punchy Paper.

LATER
FROM EUROPE

How the Adjournment of the Trent Affair is Regarded at Washington.

Another Fight in Missouri.

Rebels Routed---150 Killed and Wounded ---35 Prisoners Taken.

FROM PORT ROYAL

Fighting Expected in South Carolina.

WASHINGTON 28th

The settlement of the Trent affair affords much gratification among all conservatives and prominent Union loving men Whatever may have been their previous opinions on the subject they regard the adjustment as removing a serious impediment in the prosecution of hostilities against the insurgents, and as depriving the enemy of the strength which they would have derived from a war between the United States and Great Britain, and probably with France There is a generally expressed acquiescence in the course of the Government, while the dispatches of Secretary Seward are in the light of the highest statesmanlike ability

WASHINGTON, 29th

Gen McDowell's division was reviewed yesterday at Ball s Cross Roads, after which the troops had a sham battle, having taken positions as if in an actual engagement.

Gen McCall s division was reviewed today at Langley, by Gov Curtin, Secretary Cameron, and Assistant Secretary of War, Scott

The army officers all say that our troops have remarkably improved in discipline

The Brigade under command of Gen Wads worth went to the vicinity of Fairfax Court House and brought away a large quantity of forage The only evidence of the presence of an enemy was a few mounted pickets

The injury to Col Berdan, from trying a breech loading rifle, is not so serious as was reported, and he is rapidly recovering

Within the past week fewer officers and privates have been seen about the drinking houses than heretofore, the orders being more strictly enforced in the matter of granting passes. An improvement has also been made in the military street police, and the recent introduction of the mounted guard affords a remedy against fast driving

PALMYRA, Mo, 28th.

Yesterday Gen Prentiss, with 460 men, encountered and dispersed 900 rebels under Col Dorsey, at Mt Ziva, Bone county, killing and wounding 150 and capturing 35 prisoners, 95 horses and 105 guns Our loss was only three killed and 11 wounded

The rebels burned another train on the North Missouri Railroad yesterday, and they say that they intend to destroy all the cars on the road so as to prevent its being used

NEW YORK, 29th

The Times special Washington dispatch says that a foraging expedition of five regiments on Friday, brought in 80 loads of forage, and on Saturday 70 more, from the neighborhood of Fairfax Court House

The steamer Empire City, from Beaufort the 24th and Port Royal the 25th, arrived this a m She came out of Port Royal by the southeast channel which has been buoyed and has not less than 30 feet of water in it

The 7 th regiment made a reconnoissance of 15 miles from Beaufort, capturing 6 rebels.

Our troops are still building intrenchments on Tybee island, while Fort Pulaski kept up a continual fire on them without damage

A rebel boat came down Wardaw channel on the 23d, from Savannah, reconnoitering to see if the way was clear for the English steamer Fingal to get out with her cargo of cotton The boat being chased by a gunboat, was run ashore, her crew escaping to the woods, except two, who were put on board the Wabash

The captains officers and crews of twenty of the vessels of the stone fleet, are passengers on the Empire City, sixteen of which have been sunk in Charleston harbor

Col Strickland and Lieut Smith of the 8th Maine, and Captains Haines, Wentworth and Wedgeworth of the 9th Maine, and Capt Newell of the 4th New Hampshire regiments are also passengers in the Empire City.

ST LOUIS Dec 28

The legal condition of the negroes discharged yesterday by order of the Provost Marshal, is in no wise changed They are only freed from confinement and sale on the presumption that they are slaves. Gen Halleck says that this order will not debar any one from enforcing his legal rights to the services of those negroes, such rights, if any exist, can be enforced through the legal civil tribunals of the State, whose mandates will always be duly respected by the military authorities of the department Military officers cannot decide upon the rights of property or claim to service, except so far as may be authorized by the laws of war or acts of Congress — When not so authorized, they will avoid all interference with such questions

PORTLAND, 29

The steamship Jura sailed for Liverpool at 9 o'clock last evening Mason and Slidell were not on board

FORTRESS MONROE, 28, via Baltimore 29

A flag of truce brought four passengers from Norfolk this afternoon The following news is in the Richmond papers—

Intelligence from Bowling Green, Ky, states that appearances do not indicate an engagement although unforeseen circumstances might precipitate a fight within 8 or 10 days

Charleston, 27th The Courier of this morning states that some Yankee gunboats exchanged a few shots with the Cole Island Battery, yesterday

A despatch from Charleston also states that a Federal fleet of 12 gunboats had passed up to White Point, on the North Edisto, and made a demonstration on Gen Evans's forces Reinforcements were sent to Gen. Evans, and battle is expected

Demonstrations had also been made at other points.

The North Carolina batteries disabled a few gunboats on Tuesday last

Five Federal gunboats are anchored off Cole Island, and a battle is expected every hour

Augusta, Ga., 27 It is reported here that the steamer Gladiator had entered a Confederate port with a large quantity of arms, ammunition, etc

The Richmond Examiner says that a painful rumor is in circulation that a gentleman of that city, holding a commission in the Army of the Potomac, had committed suicide by shooting himself through the head

Chas. H Foster, who was lately appointed by the President as U S marshal for North Carolina, arrived here (Norfolk) a passenger in the steamer Baltic on her first appearance outside

GEN. HALLECK'S ORDER. Gen Halleck's order in Missouri, dated Nov 25th, prohibiting the sale of Negroes in Fulton and Hermitage, on the Palmyra Railroad, were set on fire by the rebels last night and destroyed.

NEW YORK, 28th.

The British steamer Karnak, from Havana, N P, Dec. 23, arrived here this evening

The rebel steamers Isabel and Florida were in port, closely watched by the U.S steamer Flambeau.

The British steamer Gladiator was also in port and would soon sail for England

DETROIT, Mich, Dec. 28

Arthur Rankin, member of the Canadian Parliament and Co of the Union Lancers, deeming further connection with the United States service improper, in view of our present complications with England, has resigned his commission and will return to Canada.

SIMPLE PRESCRIPTIONS A lad swallowed a small lead bullet lately His friends were very much alarmed about it, and his father, that no means might be spared to save his darling boy's life, sent post haste to a surgeon of skill directing his messenger to tell him the circumstances, and urge his coming without delay

The doctor was found, heard the dismal tale, and with as much unconcern as he would manifest in a common headache, wrote the following laconic note

'Sir—don t alarm yourself If after three weeks the bullet is not removed, give the boy a charge of powder Yours, &c

P S.—Don t shoot the boy at anybody"

This is much akin to the laconic prescription of the celebrated Dr Abernethy

An Irishman called in great haste upon the Dr, stating that—'Be jabers, me boy Tim has swallowed a mouse'

'Then, be jabers' said Abernethy, 'tell your boy Tim to swallow a cat'

Once upon a time a certain quack, who looked as learned as an owl, was admitted by one of his patients thus

'Doctor, tell us how it is that when we eat and drink, the meat is separated from the drink'

'Why, I tell you' said the learned man of pills 'You see as how there is in the neck two pipes—one to receive the meat and the other the drink At the top of them pipes is a lid or clapper, and when we eat this clapper shuts up the drink pipe, and when we drink it turns back upon the meat pipe—a see saw kind of motion Queer apparatusses, I assure you'

'But, Doctor,' said the patient, 'it seems to me that ere clapper must play a ——— sharp game when we are eating pudding and milk.'

Quack took his hat and slid, advising his patient not to swear at all

GENTLEMEN

Having noticed for years the fortunes of Tailors doing a credit business, and having myself proved that system to be utterly wrong for the Retail Tailoring business, I feel compelled to adopt the CASH SYSTEM. It is better for the customer who expects to pay for his Garments as the amount lost by bad debts under the credit system, is divided between the patrons and the patronized, as the former receive it by paying as much as 20 per cent. less for their garments, and the latter is saved from bank ruptcy Consequently I would invite all Cash paying customers to examine the Stock of Goods now on hand, and see if the prices are not 20 per cent less than at any other Clothing House in the city The Cutting Department is under the charge of

BOOTS AND SHOES

MADE ON

PLUMER'S PATENT ANATOMICAL LASTS

(From J V C Smith, M. D., formerly Mayor of Boston)

PLUMER'S PATENT BOOTS.

The Undersigned has worn a pair of these INDROWN Boots, and feels grateful to the Inventor for the comfort derived from them. The also adjustment of the sole to every part of the under surface of the foot, is an important circumstance which seems to have been entirely overlooked till Dr Plumer planned his Last and Boot upon truly scientific principles

Those who have once had an opportunity to test the real advantages of these Philosophically made Boots, will hardly be reconciled to wear any other

J V C SMITH

BOSTON, July 26, 1861

J C PLUMER, M D

Dear Sir I am greatly delighted with your newly invented boots which I have worn during the past winter and only wonder that the world should have been so stupid as not to have made the discovery half a century ago. Any one with a grain of common sense and a moments reflection cannot fail to see that your "PATENT BOOTS AND SHOES" are perfectly adapted to the foot (that wonderful piece of Nature's Mechanism,) giving to every portion of it a full and equal support, and I am sure that those who once make trial of your new invention will never go back to the old fashioned boots or shoes, which are so prolific of Corns, Bunions, and a thousand other troubles. Your "Patent Boots" seems to be part and parcel of our Physical structure supporting the foot firmly giving easiness to the gait and promoting human comfort to an eminent degree, especially in walking over rough surfaces

I wish I knew of some means by which I could make known to every man, woman and child in Christendom the nature and importance of your invention. Very truly yours,

MORRIS MATTSON M D
66 Summer Street

PORTLAND July 12, 1860

DR. PLUMER—

Dear Sir Having learned the principle upon which your "Anatomical Last" is made, was favorably impressed as to its sufficiency in relieving a difficulty which all have experienced who have to walk considerably via severe pain in the feet after much walking. After having worn the boots made upon the "Anatomical Last I found my anticipations more than realized I can walk nearly all day without experiencing the above named difficulty in the least degree I also escaped the torturing process of breaking in my boots for they were as easy at first as after they had been worn.

MESSRS W E HAGAN & Co Troy N Y—Gents The happy results attending the use of Heimstreet's INIMITABLE (in every sense of the word) Hair Restorative seems to demand that I should give my testimony that other ladies might profit by it. I have never used a hair preparation that I liked so well It has completely restored every hair that was gray to the color it was in childhood and has brought it out thick and healthy It was indeed to me the article by Mr Reynolds your Agent here If this letter will be of service you may publish it.

Very respectfully yours

ANTI testimonials new and almost without number might be given from ladies and gentlemen in all grades of society whose united testimony none of old rest, that Prof Wood's Hair Restorative will restore the bald and gray and preserve the hair of the youth to old age, in all its youthful beauty

BATTLE CREEK, Mich Dec 21, 1858.

Prof Wood—These will please accept a line to inform you that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago caused by a complicated chronic disease attended with an eruption on the head. A continuous course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence I have not been able to obtain a suit for caps, neither have I been able to pay my board in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of the Hair Restorative about the first of August last. I have faithfully followed the direction and the bald spot is now covered with fair thick and black, though short It is also coming in all over my head Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently I feel anxious to persevere in its use and seeing destitute of means to purchase any more I would ask three of these worldly not be willing to send me an order on these agents for a bottle and receive to myself the scripture declaration therewith to those that are kind to the widow and the fatherless

Line with Noble Co Indiana, Feb 5 1859

Prof O J Wood—Dear Sir In the latter part of the year I had while attending the State and National Law School of the state of New York my hair from a disease unknown to me commenced falling off very rapidly so that in the short space of 6 months the whole top part of my scalp was almost entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining part on upper side and back part of my head fell after because gray so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the state of Indiana my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance as my more intimate acquaintances were to recognise me at all

I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country but receiving no assurance from them that my hair could again be restored I was induced to see more reconciled to my late and I fortunately in the latter part of the year 1858 your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use I tried one bottle and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time I have used seven dollars worth of your Restorative and as a result have a rich coat of very soft black hair which no money can buy

As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production
